Tenure track faculty positions, fall 2015

- 1) Soil and Water Sciences
- 2) Animal Sciences
- 3) Plant Sciences
- 4) Biochemistry, Food Science and Nutrition

The Robert H. Smith Faculty of Agriculture, Food and Environment of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, invites applications for tenure-track faculty positions at all levels commencing from the 2015-2016 academic year.

Priority will be given to candidates who show originality and potential in one of the areas of specialization listed in Appendix A. We are particularly interested in candidates who have a strong track record in research, outstanding academic credentials and a strong commitment to undergraduate and graduate education. Candidates should have a Ph.D. degree and Postdoctoral experience. Starting rank will be commensurate with the applicant's qualifications. Filling of the positions will be dependent on availability of resources.

Successful candidates will be expected to establish and lead independent and original research teams, to obtain competitive research grants, to supervise graduate students, to teach courses in Hebrew at the undergraduate and graduate levels (as required by their institute/department), and to contribute to department and faculty activities.

Applications should be submitted via the following website: <https://tpp.ekmd.huji.ac.il>
(First "Create an account"; then "Apply for a position"; select "Faculty of Agriculture; select position "Faculty of Agriculture Tenure Track Faculty Positions")

Applications should include the following documents in English (preferably in PDF format):

- Curriculum Vitae (according to the instructions in Appendix B).
- List of publications (according to the instructions in Appendix C).
- Scientific Biography (1-3 pages) as a summary of previous achievements.
- A detailed description of future research plans, preferably in the form of a research proposal.
- Teaching interests and specific courses planned.

- Previous teaching experience, including evaluation reports (if available).
- PDF files of 3 key articles.
- Recommendation letters from the candidate's Ph.D. and postdoctoral advisors. (These should be sent directly to the Faculty's contact person, Mrs. Janine Harpaz – see below).
- A list of 3 additional academicians (name, name of institute and e-mail address) who may be approached by the Faculty to evaluate the candidate's qualifications for the requested academic position.
- Signed declaration regarding relatives employed by the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (form to be filled out on the website).
